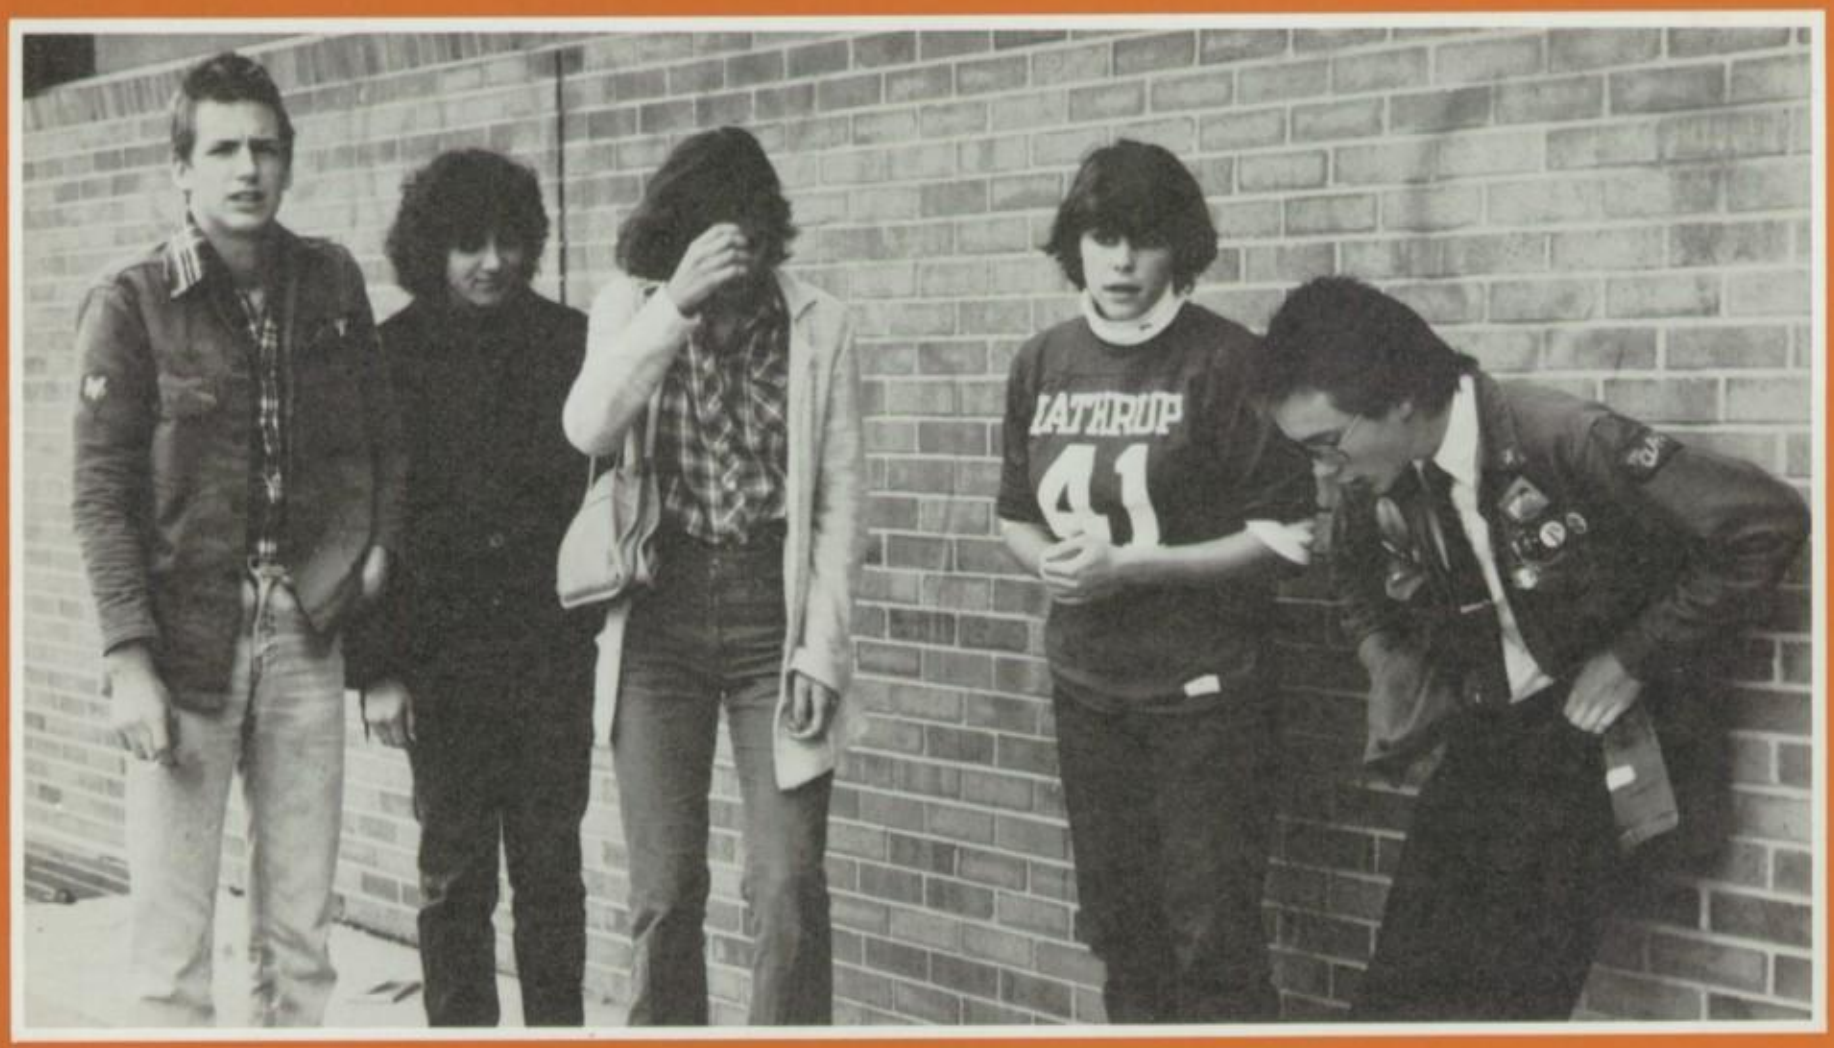
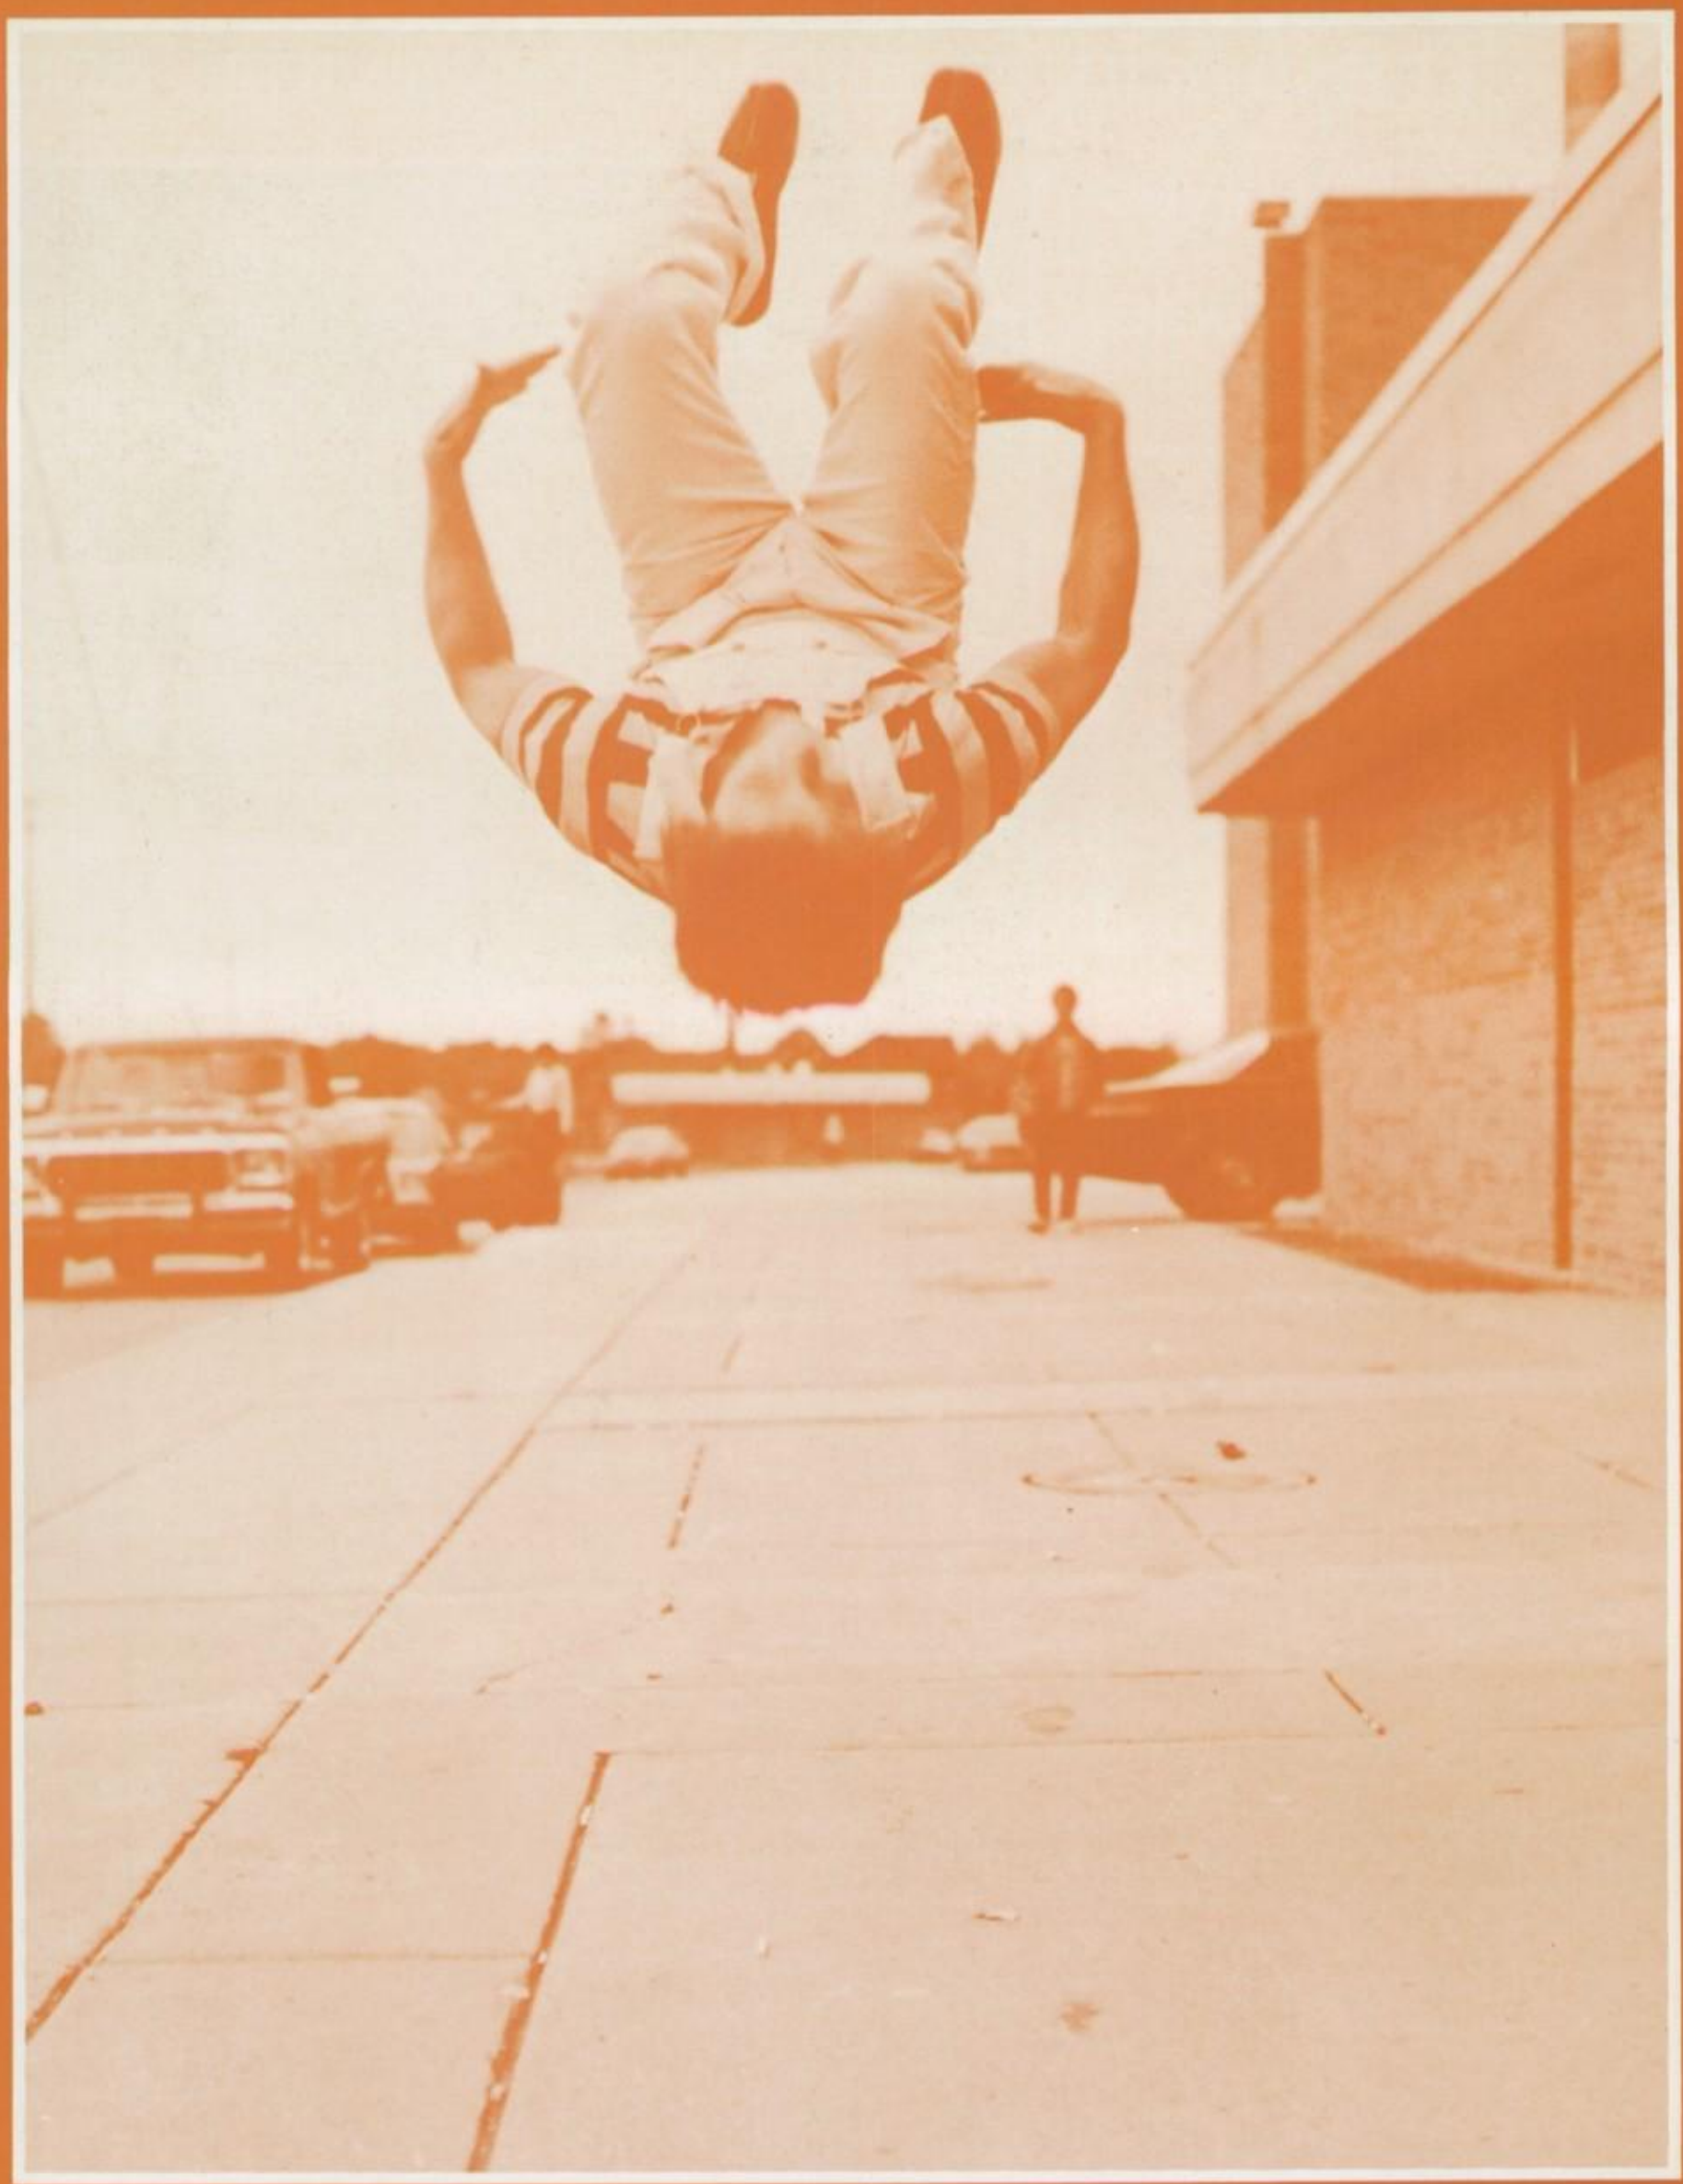
The world is always revolving, and so are the lives of the people.





As the world changes, the people always change, too.

What is the world? Is it just some round planet?

The world is made of plants, animals, and a special form of life called MAN.

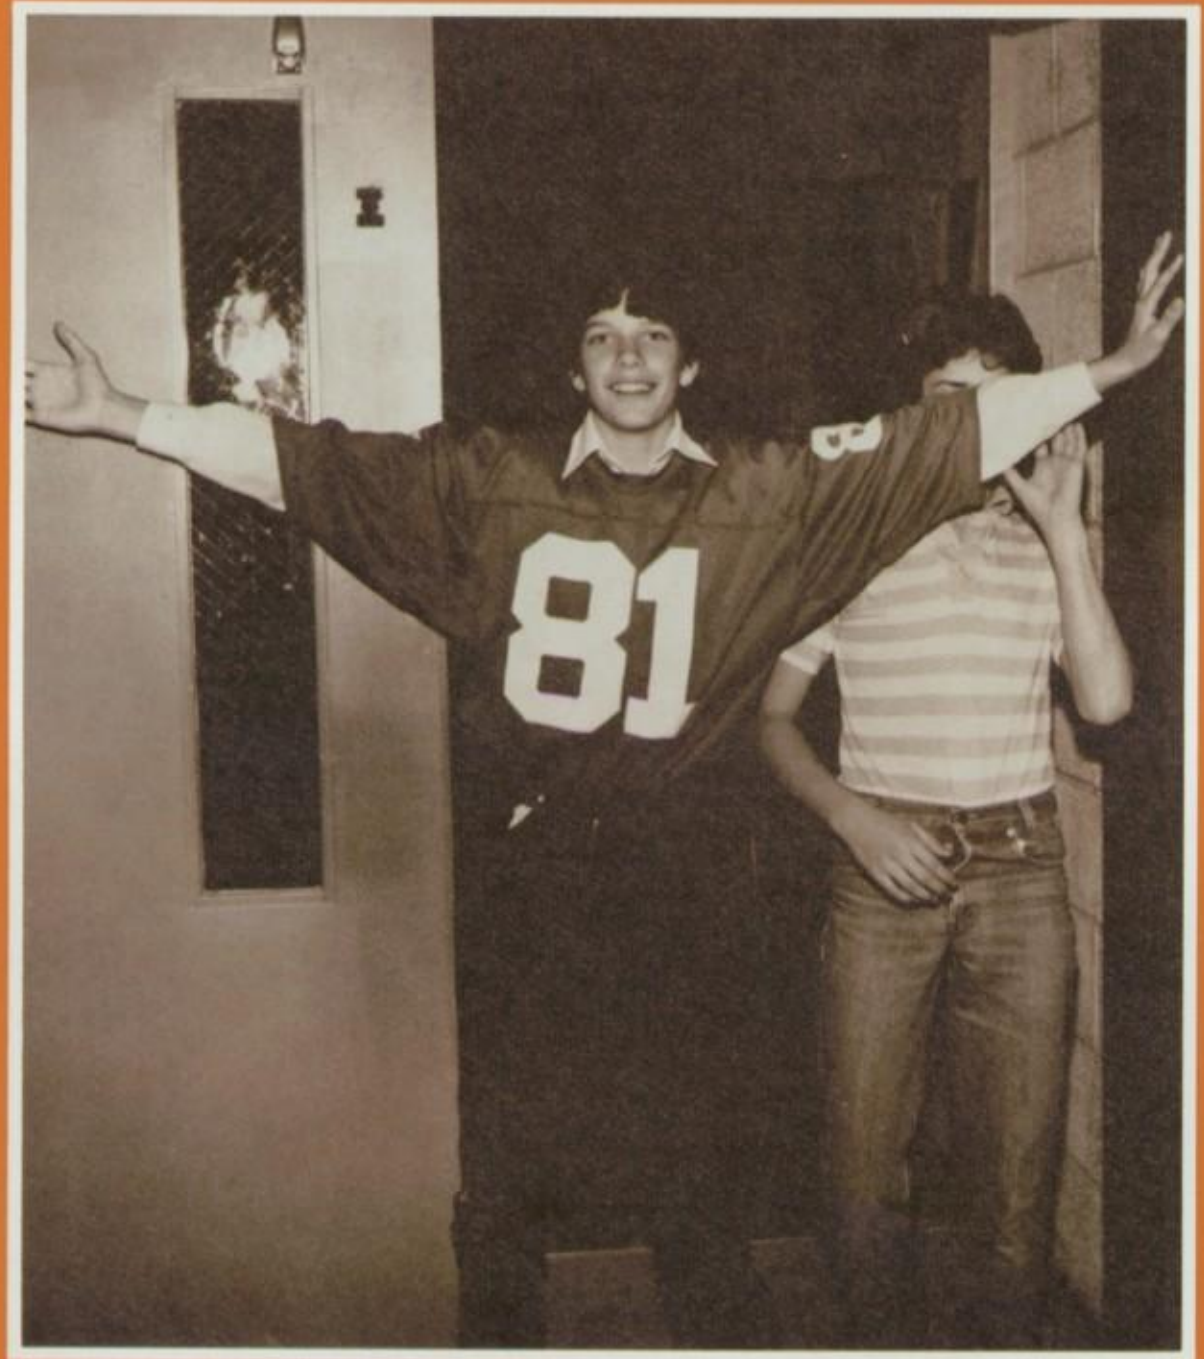
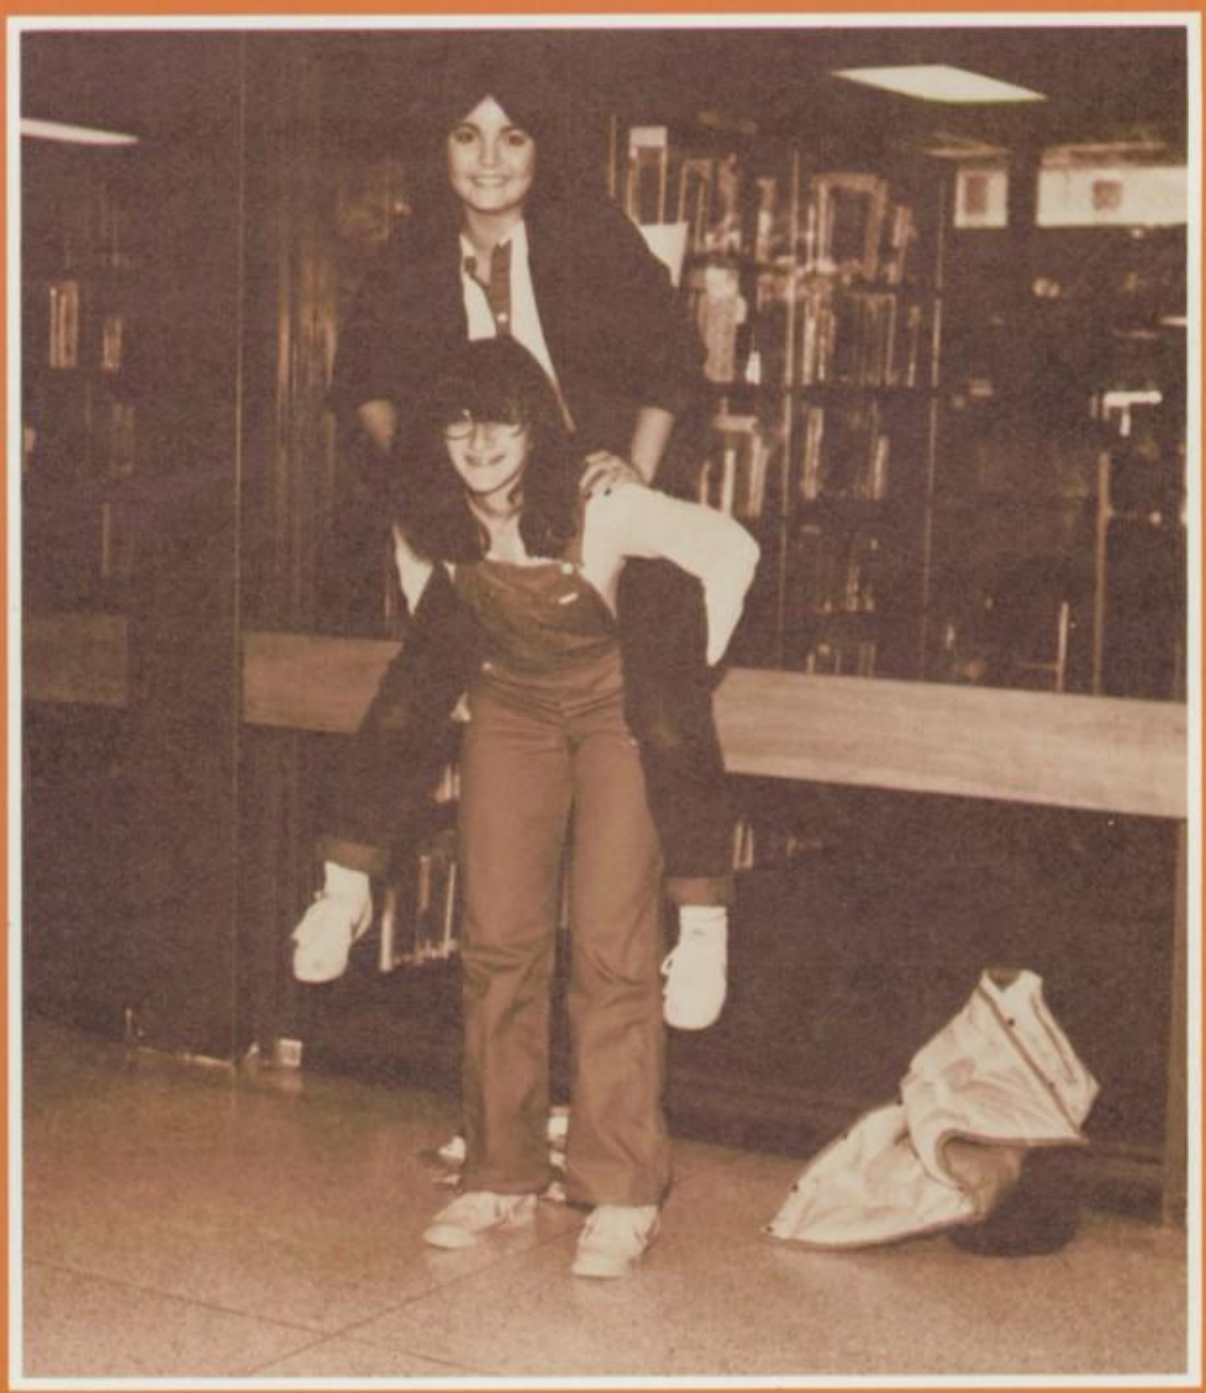
Life would be so square without revolution in the people's lives

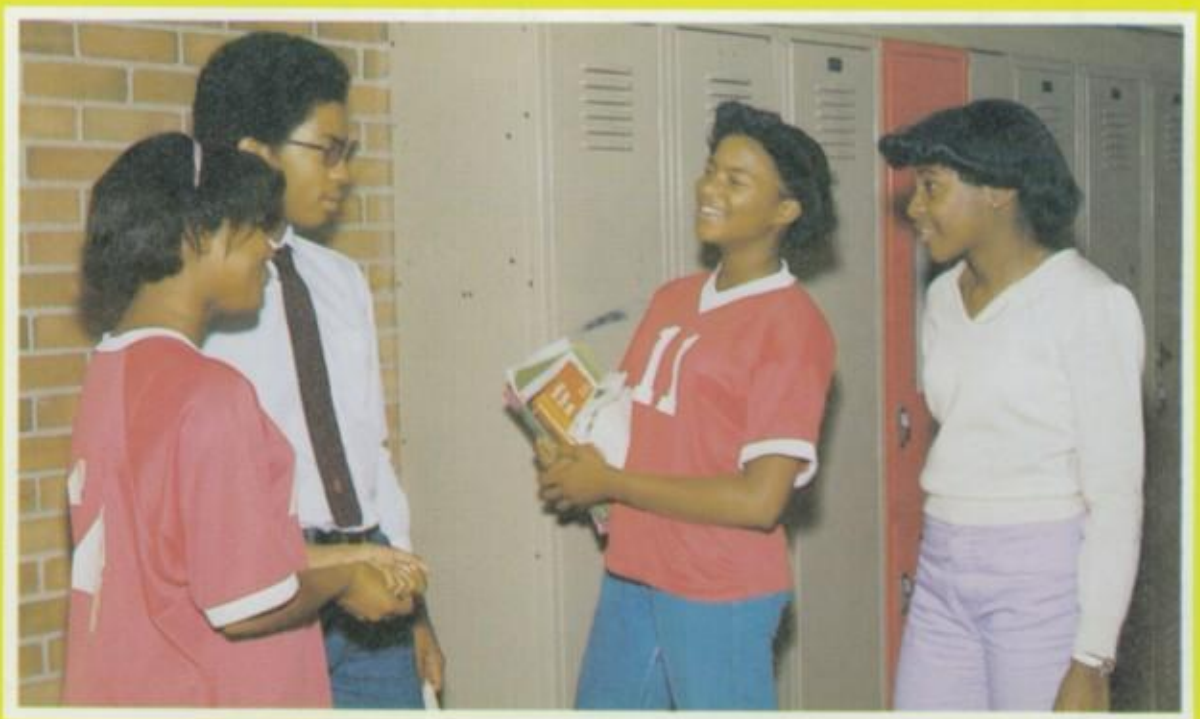
People are the center of attention . . .

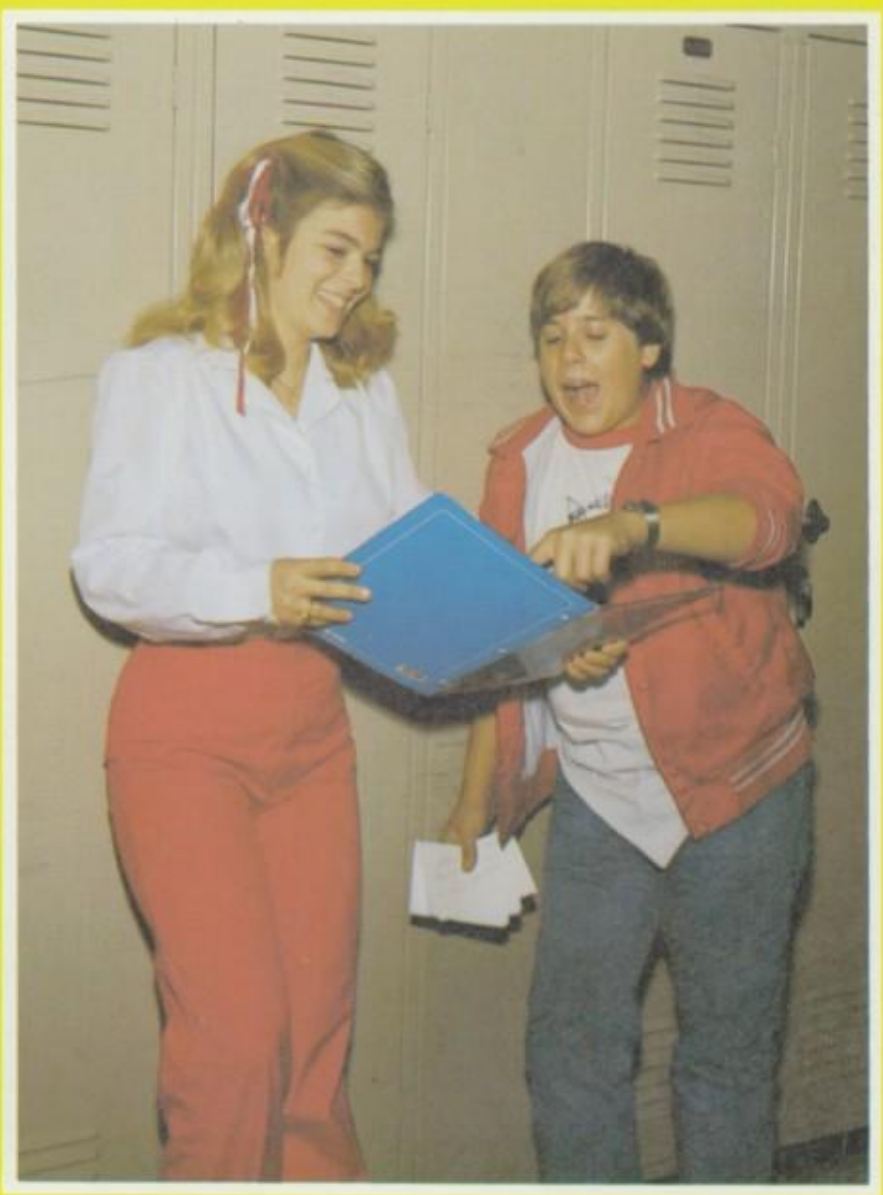


The world evolves around people



People keep the world moving, which makes it go 'round and 'round





People are well-rounded individuals

After all, who wants to be considered square?

Listening to melodies

Everybody has a little music in their souls. Whether you like to sing or just listen to the music, music will help to keep you out of the blues.

Talented artists

Art is a form of creation.
You can use your own hands and mind to make drawings, paintings, or jewelry.
All it takes is a little time, patience, and imagination.
Then the world will have maybe another Picasso.

Remembering the fun of science

Science always brings back memories like where would we have our fun?

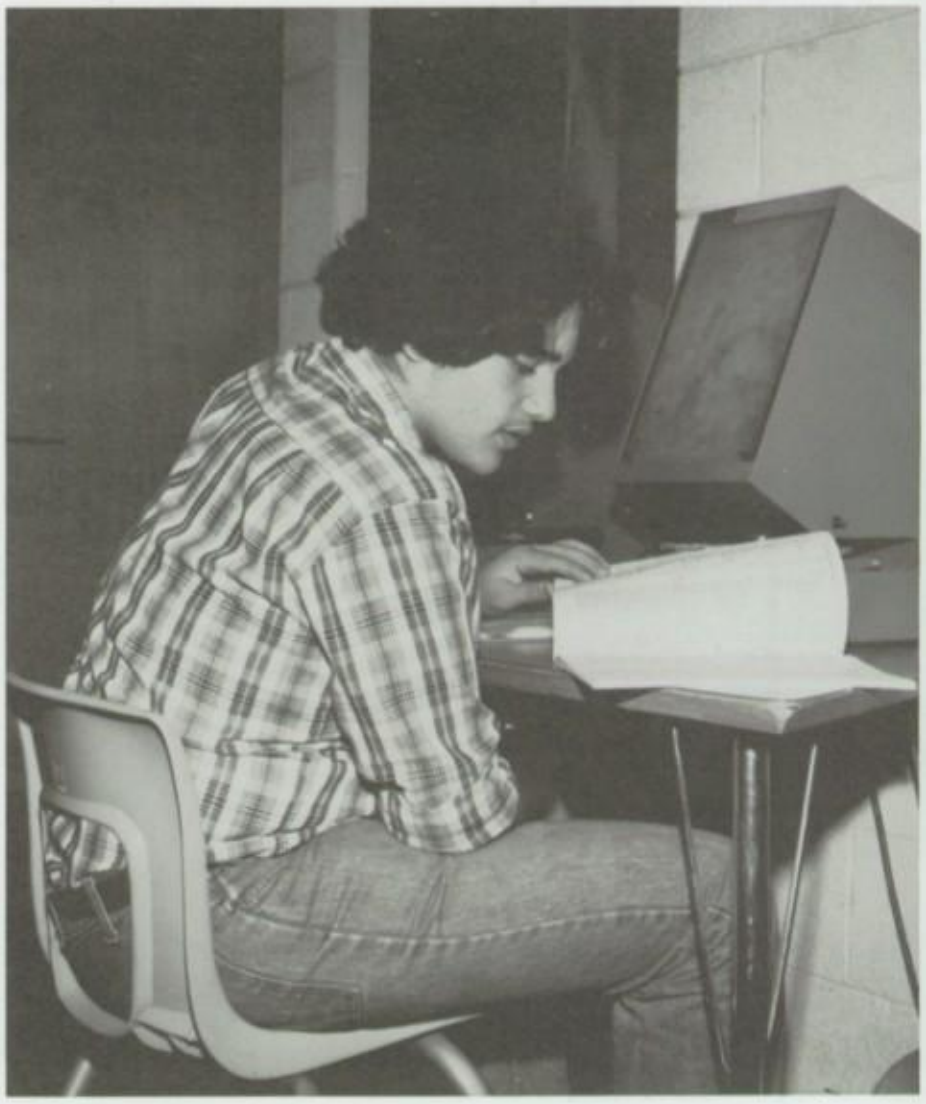
Now that you've grown up, the career center can help you decide just what to do.



Job placement is always there to help

Where can you go to find a job that's right for you?
Something sort of challenging;
something kind of new.

The Job Placement Center is the place you ought to go.

and the drummers set the beat.

It really can't be beat.

The sounds of music flow softly through our ears.

Tennis is a highly competitive game.
So grab yourself a racket,
and get out on the tennis court.
The sport takes a lot of concentration,
plus many special techniques.
The coach is always there to help.
'cause the Girls' Tennis Team is one of a kind.

S-L is on the ball

S-L soccer has it all -
Every kick, punt, and scoring ball
The players are big, rough, and tall
They're bound to win every fall.

RIGHT: Junior Steve Bender makes a steal.
FAR RIGHT: All the swimmers sit on the sidelines to wait for their turn.
FARTHEST RIGHT: Synchronized swimmers are always even.
BELOW RIGHT: The swimmers look like graceful swans as they move in the water.

Swim like swans

Synchronized swimming is a ball.
You get in shape without doing the crawl.
Drama, talent and beauty in swim, also help out in keeping you trim.

Golf is par for the course

It's up; it's off the green.
It's another hole in one for the S-L team.
The other team's up - he missed by a mile,
The S-L coach begins to smile.
The S-L team wins again.

Skiing is a very challenging sport.
It takes a lot of courage and a lot of skill,
risking their lives to make it down the hill.
The S-L skiers are something great.
And on the slopes they always make it through and past the winning gate.

Shooting and checking, skating after the puck.
Scoring a goal with a little luck.

Grace and grunt

Wrestlers are strong, so people say.
But gymnasts do their thing in a special way.
Gymnasts do flips and hang from bars,
while wrestlers build muscles by lifting cars.

Though the wrestlers are big and really strong,
and gymnasts are very sleek and long,
the two are really quite the same,
for both are seeking fortune and fame.

UN DEVILS

Class of '85

When we first came here,
we thought the school was so big.
But now we know our way around,
so it's not so big anymore.
When we first came here,
the seniors used to call us small and push us around.
But now we fit right in.
When we first came here,
we were kind of mixed up,
but now we all know one thing for sure - watch out for the class of '85.

Well, we've made it this far . . .

We were freshmen it seems just yesterday.
But soon we'll be seniors - we're on our way.
Just one more year and then we're through.
No more skipping, but who ever knew
The agony of taking the long S.A.T.'s
Hopefully we did well, if not we'll say please.
Though the years go by fast, it's hard to see
The joy of the past - and the future to be.
But soon enough we'll be old and grey.
And we'll cherish the memories as long as we may.

Dear Simone:

So we have made it through another year of high school. I thought this year would never end after all the fights we have been in. But now I'm glad that we are good friends again we should never let anything come between us that would cause fights cause our friendship is much to important to me to fight over such stupid things. Just think back to all the things we have been through together (all the embarrassing things!) But I really dont regret any of it. It's been such fun! I can hardly wait till the day when we get Ed. and I promise not to chicken out. This means much to much. after all the things him & Scott have done to us (especialy you) next year should be a real blast. I want us to have the best time ever. We wont let anything dumb get us into fights cause I'm ignoring you which I would never do on purpose anyways. I cant wait till the Journey concert we should have a blast! I'm going to scream my guts out. How bout you? Well gotta go

P.S. DID I write enough this year?!

Four years of our lives
spent studying, causing trouble, and having fun.
We always remember
. . . our class trips, our homecoming floats . . .
cramming for Physics, APB all-nighters . . .
. . . open parties, after-games at the BK lounge . . .
and all of our friends.
We may speak of escape - of bigger and better things; but our four years at S-L occupy a permanent place in our hearts.

Mini Messages

Yearbook Staff: I, Patricia Littman, of sound mind (I think) and sound body leave my fellow staff members my will:
Andi: The index pages you enjoyed doing so much and a Lermie punching bag.
Laura: Our friendship. You're too nice to be cruel to.
Nancy: A better partner for next year. (You poor girl — two years in a row.)
Brian: ¼ page ad. (only if you run short)
Ann: Two chairs (one for your back end and the other for your feet) and our friendship (I did not think we would last this long).
Lisa: A big box of yearbook pics.
Steve: Next year's freshmen.
Rich: A book, "How not to be so lazy."
Linda: 50 unexcused absences (I won't count the number of skips you had), a new phone number, and you're not two inches tall.
Sue: Do you live at your house? 40 unexcused absences for you, also. How many of yours were skips?
Amy: Another case of mono and the absentee layout. Never bring your boyfriend to yearbook.
Diane: All the excuses you made up that usually backfired and your friendship with Rich?
Lermie: Next year's sport layouts, all of S-L's cheerleaders a package of razor blades and all the boloney you spat at me everyday. May you shrink from lying so much to Cip and me.
Cippies: Next year's yearbook staff, headaches and gray hairs from too much yearbook and newspaper stress, cold classrooms, your vegetable burgers, 15 minute Cip stops and all of Jerry's kids.
I hope you don't take what I said seriously. It was all said in good, clean, fun. Thanks for a very memorable year. The best of luck to all of you, forever. Your Editor

Dear Friends,

We started the year off very well with some returning staff members. Everybody was excited and ready to create the 1982 Synthesis. Many people don't seem to understand how much time and patience it takes to produce a yearbook. All the staff members went through both frustration of getting their section done and the joy when it was completed. But, it was Mrs. Cipolloni who deserved the most credit. She devoted all her extra time during the day, night and on weekends in the creation of this yearbook. I want to thank all my fellow staff members and especially Mrs. Cipolloni on an excellent yearbook.

Editor-In-Chief,

Patricia Littman

Simone, glad we've gotten to be friends this year. It's too bad that we had such a fool for an English teacher though. But after all, I wouldn't have gotten a decent grade if he was aware most of the time! Have a great summer! Best wishes!
Love,
Wendy
